The Portman Estate, Marylebone
Shopping & Eating Out 2016
Welcome to the 2016 guide to The Portman Estate’s vibrant shopping and dining destinations, located in stylish Marylebone. The independent shops and restaurants of Seymour Place, New Quebec Street and Chiltern Street are a short stroll from each other and just minutes away from Oxford Street and Marylebone High Street. This guide has been designed to help you discover the array of dining, fashion and lifestyle in the area.

Seymour Place is one of Marylebone’s most exciting dining destinations with a terrific choice of restaurants. Recent arrivals include modern Italian Bernardi’s, Basque grill Lurra and widely anticipated The Mae Deli, specialising in nourishing and natural fare. Drop into Vinoteca for an extensive wine selection or SANDY’s for a traditional Corsican pizza. Experience Donostia for tapas and The Lockhart for a twist on Southern US dishes.

Just up the road is New Quebec Street, a specialist stretch of charming boutiques and eateries, much loved by local residents and visitors. From women’s fashion to wine merchants, to florists and salons, this street is truly rich in offering.

Only a few minutes away, Chiltern Street has become one of London’s most notorious specialist and menswear destinations and sits happily alongside the Chiltern Firehouse – a truly dazzling venue in London. Discover hidden gems as you walk the short distance between the streets. Sprinkled with pubs, restaurants and great coffee shops, there are plenty of places to relax, take time out and add to your experience.

There is more to come so take the short walk, experience the charm of these streets and enjoy your visit.
